All vendors must be licensed or otherwise authorized to conduct business in the State of Hawaii, if required. Vendors are responsible for their own tax, permits and license liabilities. We ask that all vendors refrain from smoking in the Market area during business hours, no smoking within any booth or around customers. All vendors agree to indemnify and hold harmless Mahiku Farmers Market Committee, its officers, employees, volunteers, and agents from any and all claims, actions, judgments, losses, costs (including reasonable attorney fees) and damages whatsoever: including claims arising by reason of accident, injury or death caused by persons or property of any kind arising out of, in connection with, or incident to the Mahiku Farmers Market. The Mahiku Farmers Market in no way guarantees the marketability for fitness of the vendors goods, nor does the Market guarantee the success of the vendor's efforts. The Market Committee is actively soliciting sponsors for our event. As such, we may have to deal with such things as exclusivity, special promotions, conflicts, etc. Therefore, if your participation would conflict with these sponsorships, we reserve the right to not accept your application (or cancel if already accepted) and your entry fee will be returned in full (without any fees). We also reserve the right to limit and/ or refuse the sale of any merchandise if it conflicts with our contract with any sponsor. We reserve the right to restrict your selling of products or services at the event if your indication of product listed on this form did not mention conflicting sponsorship products or services. We also reserve the right to restrict items for sale that are deemed inappropriate and not in keeping with the image of the market. All canopies must be secured with approved weights of a minimum of 24 lbs on each leg of canopy.

I have read the Rules and Regulations of the Mahiku Farmers' Market. I agree that the Mahiku Farmers' Market will not be held liable for any injuries or damages incurred and agree to hold them harmless against any and all losses, claims or actions, arising from the Mahiku Farmers' Market.
